

Web Development using Struts

Length : 2 days
Level : Beginner

DESCRIPTION

This course introduces Web application development using Struts tool. It focuses on using Struts with JSPs to develop the presentation layer of a web application.

OBJECTIVES

At the end of this session, developers will understand how Struts' multiple services may help to develop any web application's presentation layer.

CONTENT

Multiple web applications' architecture models
Struts overview
Controller features
Model features
View features
Configuration
Diving in
Exceptions handling
Design of interactive forms using Struts
Validation
Internationalization
Tile usage
Struts' best practices
Expanding Struts functionalities

AUDIENCE

This course is intended for developers.

PREREQUISITES

Course :

Introduction to JSP and Servlet

Experience :

Good knowledge of Java language

Basic knowledge of JSPs and Servlet

Basic knowledge of object oriented analysis and design